BRAZEN THIEVES STEAL STONE FLAGS FROM HISTORIC CHURCH

More than 100 York
stone slabs dug up and taken away under cover of darkness

Report by Henry James

BRAZEN thieves have stolen more than 100 stone flags from outside the historic St Cuthbert's Church in Halsall.

It is believed the York stone flags had been in place in the churchyard for hundreds of years and could have a value of thousands of pounds.

The thieves dug up and took away the stones some time between 5pm on Sunday, January 23 and 7am on Monday, January 24.

Church officials were shocked to find on Monday morning that around a quarter of all the stone slabs in the churchyard had been removed.

As well as facing the huge cost of replacing them, the theft could also affect church services as well as weddings and funerals as the stones were taken from the main pathway into the church.

Parishioners wanting to access the graveyard are asked to do so by the side gate for the time being until the damage is repaired.

People who live close to the church or have shops nearby are being asked to check their CCTV for images of anything suspicious.

A church spokesman said: "Someone has taken more than 100 York stone flags from the church path.

"It is the main access for weddings, funerals and services.

"It is going to cause much disruption, but we will find a way of organising services and events.

"The church is more than 700 years old and is likely the stones have been there for hundreds of years. It is difficult to put a cost on this, but it is not a small claim to the insurers. York stones are very difficult to trace.

"We wanted to publicise this to help the police, and prevent the thieves coming back.

"We want people who live nearby to check their CCTV, and see if they can see anything connected to the theft.

"It looks unsightly now and my thoughts on the people who have done this are unprintable."

Residents posted their anger at the thefts on social media with one stating that it was "totally devastating and heart-breaking to all the Halsall people past and present."

Lancashire Police have asked residents with information to call 101.

Residents are handed opportunity to shape council's new Local Plan

Report by Henry James

WEST Lancashire Borough Council is preparing a new 'Local Plan' looking ahead to 2040 and residents have until January 27 to give the authority their views.

The Local Plan is a legal document that sets out where new housing, business and other uses can go and contains policies that the council uses when considering planning applications.

The Plan covers a wide range of topics including jobs, transport, leisure, recreation, energy and nature.

The current Local Plan dates from 2013 and needs updating to better reflect important issues like health and wellbeing, and the Climate Emergency.

The council is looking for people's views on what are the main planning-related issues in West Lancashire, and how best to tackle them through the Plan.

People can choose to give their views on the things that most concern them, or they can look at the whole range of issues.

There is an interactive website portal that can be accessed via the council's home page and the council can also provide paper copies of what will be included in the consultation for those unable to access the internet.

The consultation lasts 10 weeks, four weeks longer than the obligatory six, to give people the best opportunity to take part and have their say. It started on November 18 2021 and will finish on January 27 2022, so time is running out for people to have their say.

There will be two more opportunities after this one for people to have input, and the Council hope that the new Plan will be adopted by the end of 2024.

Councillor Gaynar Owen

Councillor Gaynar Owen, cabinet member for planning, said: "Taking part in the consultation at this early stage is really important."

"The future of the borough we live in will be shaped by the feedback we receive from residents now and in future consultations."

"There are not many days left and we want to hear as many people's views as possible on these important decisions, so I'd encourage everyone to make the most of this opportunity."

The council is not looking at choosing housing or business sites at this point – that will be the focus of the next stage in approximately one year's time.

But individuals can comment on the sites that were submitted to the council in the 2020 'Call for Sites.'

A spokesperson said the authority, "very much looks forward to hearing from as many people as possible from across the borough to get as good a picture as we can on the approach people think the council should take as we plan for the future."

Fury at ‘vandalism’ as woodland trees cut down by firm without permission

Residents shocked to find clearance work carried out at Raydex site which was ‘green buffer’ to motorway

Report by Henry James

RESIDENTS are up in arms that workmen have cleared sections of wooded land at Railway Road in Skelmersdale, which was once the home of cable-makers Raydex.

The work has left people living nearby angry as they say the trees acted as a screen between their homes and the M58 and the Whitemoss Landfill site.

They are also shocked as the work was carried out by developers Birley Hill Limited without any residents being consulted.

Francis Mckenna, who has lived on Railway Road for 21 years, fumed: “They have been digging up the trees and flattening the land. It is yards from our houses. They have taken away the trees that acted as a buffer.

“We were not aware the work was to be carried out. There has been no public consultation or leaflet distribution to inform us of the work.

“The area is precious woodland and has seen bats in the area.”

Stephen Rawsthorne from Old Town Close added: “Many trees have been cut down. Were the trees protected? The noise during the work has been terrible.

“In two days, half of the woodland has gone. They have been able to do what they want.

“You can now see the M58 motorway. There has been no consultation. It is a kick in the teeth.

“By the time we try and organise a campaign the woods will be gone. It happened so fast.”

MP Rosie Cooper added: “It’s a disgrace that these trees which act as a sound and visual buffer between residential homes and the motorway should be hacked down without permission. This vandalism has caused much upset and nuisance to local residents.

“The council should act immediately to stop further damage and also use the powers they have to take legal action for the criminal damage caused and to get them to replace the trees.”

A spokesman for Birley Hill Limited responded: “We have been moving some earth on the site.

“We will be submitting a full planning application before the end of January.

“The council has asked us not to do any more work on site at the moment. The area is not green belt land.”

Birley Hill Limited want to regenerate the site and use the warehouse facility.

A spokesperson for the borough council commented: “We are aware of the work that has taken place and the owner has been instructed to cease until any relevant permissions are in place.

“Should planning regulations have been breached we will consider appropriate enforcement action on the work undertaken.”

MP slams county council for roundabout ‘failure’

WEST Lancashire MP Rosie Cooper has slammed Lancashire County Council “for failing to carry out the improvements to a roundabout in Skelmersdale promised over a year ago.”

In May 2020, a constituent contacted Ms Cooper about the “unacceptably poor condition” of the roundabout at Lulworth in Skelmersdale, after vehicles had mounted the roundabout and dragged mud onto the road surface.

Lancashire County Council assured the MP that white marker posts to deter vehicles from mounting the grass verge would be installed and following this they would re-seed the verges and monitor the effectiveness of the posts.

Over a year and a half on, the same constituent has alerted Ms Cooper to the fact that this work was never completed by the Council.

The MP said: “I should not have to follow up on every single promise that the council makes! If they say they are going to undertake necessary work, then I expect that to happen.

“In May 2020 that council said, clearly and in black and white, that they would complete this work when it is practical to do so. I find it difficult to believe that 20 months later they haven’t found a ‘practical’ time to do this!

“It is disgraceful that LCC think they can get away with not following through on the work they promise!

“The council need to be trustworthy and reliable. Instead, what we appear to have is a council that readily makes promises only to forget them straight away which is simply unacceptable to me and my constituents. We need actions as well as words. I look forward to the work being carried out very soon.”

Lancashire County Council has been contacted for comment.

Shop reported to have sold alcohol and cigs to children

Councillor urges strong action 'to protect health of young people'

Report by Henry James

A SHOP in Ormskirk town centre could lose its premises licence after reports it sold fake cigarettes and alcohol to children.

The Ormskirk Superstore on Aughton Street is to have its licence reviewed at the request of Lancashire County Council Trading Standards.

The store has previously been reported for the sale of inappropriate drug paraphernalia in its shop window. He reported it again in June following resident concerns about the sale of alcohol to under 18s.

The council working with Trading Standards and police visited the store to inform the owner and staff of the concerns.

These included test purchasing by 15 and 14 year olds, who were sold age-restricted products.

West Lancashire Borough Council's licensing cabinet member Cllr Gareth Dowling added that the shop has been found to breach a number of rules including a lack of staff training and a lack of a check and challenge policy.

It is further reported to be selling counterfeit cigarettes not in plain packaging as required and no duty paid, and did not contain the correct health warnings.

Councillor Dowling outside the Ormskirk Superstore.

Cllr Dowling said: "The list of breaches of the law and licensing conditions by Ormskirk Superstore is unforgivable."

"Trading Standards have undertaken multiple visits including to educate the shop and take enforcement action but they appear to have continued to flagrantly disregard the law and conditions and so I have given my full support for the review and their recommendations."

Cllr Dowling has submitted the below representation: "Given the seriousness of the offences and the repeated nature I feel WLBC has no option but to remove the licence for this store to sell any age restricted products including alcohol and cigarettes."

"The health of our local residents in particular young people leaves this council with little choice but to take strong action."

Alpine ski glory for Rocket Ryding!

TARLETON cafe owner Dave Ryding served up a treat on the ski slopes at the weekend when he became the first ever British skier to win an Alpine World Cup event.

And his success on the famous slopes of Kitzbuhel, Austria, had family and friends in the village jumping for joy.

Born in nearby Bretherton, hopes are high that the 35-year-old, nicknamed 'the Rocket,' will be in the medal hunt at the Winter Olympics, which starts in Beijing on February 4.

Ryding was sixth at the Kitzbuhel slalom after the first run of 51.40 seconds... however, after an exceptional second run of 49.86, he took the gold medal.

He told reporters: "You know, I'm 35 now, but I never stopped believing, I never stopped trying, and to bring the first victory for Great Britain in a World Cup, in Kitzbuhel... I mean, I don't know if dreams are made better."

Ryding learnt how to ski on a dry slope in Pendle at the age of eight and he did not ski on the snow until he was 13.

The skier co-owns Boskins Cafe in Tarleton which he runs with his fiancée Mandy Dirkzwager, who is a former skier herself.

He was taken by Air Ambulance to Aintree Hospital for treatment.

Police are appealing for witnesses and urging anyone with information to come forward.

Man from Aughton is one of UK's most wanted fugitives hiding in Spain

He is alleged to have stabbed two people multiple times before fleeing the country

John James Jones

Report by Henry James

A MAN from Aughton is among 12 of the UK's most wanted fugitives believed to be hiding in Spain.

John James Jones and a co-accused are alleged to have stabbed two people multiple times on April 28, 2018 leaving them seriously injured.

It is believed Jones, 31, fled the UK immediately after the incident.

There is information to show he stayed at a hotel in Madrid the night after the stabbings but left rapidly the next morning.

His last known address is Ennerdale Drive, Aughton.

He is thought to be in Ibiza, or mainland Spain.

The National Crime Agency's Most Wanted campaign is run in conjunction with independent charity CrimeStoppers, Spanish law enforcement, UK policing and comes on the back of the extremely successful Operation Captura fugitives campaign, which resulted in the arrests of 86 offenders.

Spain is one of the most popular countries for British ex-pats and the two nations have a very strong law enforcement partnership.

Steve Rodhouse the NCA's director general of operations was joined by the Spanish Security Minister Rafael Pérez Ruiz, British Ambassador Hugh Elliot and CrimeStoppers chief Mark Hallas, at the campaign launch in Madrid.

Mr Rodhouse said: "Spain is not a safe haven.

"We have a brilliant relationship with the country's various law enforcement agencies and work together daily to protect the public.

"With 86 offenders arrested in our last fugitives campaign, criminals know we will never give up and we're never far behind them.

"Our Spanish partners were crucial to many of those arrests, and in 2021 arrested and returned more than 25 wanted UK fugitives.

"The NCA's International Crime Bureau and International Liaison

Officers work on behalf of UK policing to exchange information and intelligence with partners abroad leading to the tracing and arrests of criminals globally.

"Fugitives usually continue offending while on the run and these men will be known in criminal circles wherever they are.

"The last thing the fugitives' associates will want is the combined determination and capabilities of the UK and Spanish law enforcement focusing on them.

"Many of these fugitives will be trying to blend in to the large British communities who have made their homes in Spain, and if you are resident, you may know one of them from your town or village.

"Loyalties change over time and we urge anyone with information about these men to help us find them."

All the men featured on the campaign are believed to have links to mainland Spain and the Canary Islands.

Urgent campaign to recruit more care workers

A CAMPAIGN to urgently recruit temporary care workers for older people and adults with disabilities has launched.

The campaign, run by Lancashire County Council, will employ more paid workers to support people throughout the current wave of Covid cases sparked by the Omicron variant.

Jobs on offer will include a variety of roles at the council and independent care providers. Workers will be needed in February, and possibly beyond.

People who have previously worked in social care and those with no previous experience in the sector can apply.

To apply for a temporary care worker role, visit the website: www.lancashire.gov.uk/jobs/carers

School creates garden so pupils can grow own food!

ST Anne's Catholic Primary School in Ormskirk will create a new garden so pupils can grow their own food!

Last year's 'Young School Leaders' were tasked with thinking of a gift they could leave the school, and they decided to design a garden area.

The pupils also wanted a space where children and families were able to relax and enjoy time together.

Philip Bates, headteacher at Saint Anne's Catholic Primary School said: "All children in school are looking forward to being able to spend quality time in St Anne's 'Healthy Bodies, Healthy Minds Garden'."

Final call issued to take part in consultation on hospital stroke services

Report by Henry James

IT'S not too late for people in Sefton and West Lancs to share their views on proposals to establish a 'Comprehensive Stroke Centre' at Aintree University Hospital.

The proposal aims to improve hyper-acute stroke care, which is hospital care provided in the critical 72-hour period immediately after someone has a stroke.

A 12-week public consultation was launched on November 22, 2021 and health chiefs are keen to remind people there is still time to take part by filling out an online questionnaire at: www.liverpoolccg.nhs.uk/stroke

A paper version of the questionnaire can be obtained by calling (0151) 247 6406, text: 07920 206 386 or email: csc.consultation@nhs.net

The consultation runs until February 14.

Currently, there are hyper-acute stroke services at the Royal Liverpool University Hospital, Aintree University Hospital, and Southport Hospital, which health bosses say makes it difficult to ensure that patients get equitable access to the specialist staff, tests, equipment and procedures they need in a timely manner.

The proposal has been developed by stroke specialists from each of the hospital trusts involved, with the aim of giving every patient the very best chance of accessing specialist stroke treatments as soon as possible within the first 72-hour window, which is so critical for their care.

If the proposal went ahead, it would mean that in the future all suspected stroke patients would be taken to Aintree University Hospital for the first 72-hours of stroke care, even those who may have previously been treated at the Royal Liverpool University Hospital or Southport Hospital.

After this time, many patients would be able to leave hospital to continue their recovery at home, with help from an 'early support' discharge team. Those patients who weren't ready to go home, would be given further care at either Aintree University Hospital, Broadgreen Hospital or Southport Hospital, depending on which was closest to where they live.

Health bosses point out that the proposal does not involve any reduction in NHS funding for stroke care locally. They claim it would see an additional one-off investment of £4m to develop the new Comprehensive Stroke Centre at Aintree, and an extra £1.9m invested into running the service year on year.

Dr Claire Cullen, Stroke Consultant at Liverpool University Hospitals NHS Foundation Trust, which runs Aintree University Hospital, Royal Liverpool University Hospital and Broadgreen Hospital, explained: "We want to encourage everyone to take part in this public consultation on the future of local hyper-acute stroke services - especially those who have experienced a stroke themselves, or have a friend or family member that has used stroke services."

Dr Paddy McDonald, Stroke Consultant, Southport & Ormskirk Hospital NHS Trust said: "This is an approach that we know has already been shown to improve care for stroke patients in other parts of the country, and we believe that it could do the same for our patients too - but we really want to make sure that local people agree."

The public consultation is being managed by NHS Liverpool Clinical Commissioning Group (CCG), on behalf of five local CCGs - Knowsley, Liverpool, Southport & Formby, South Sefton, and West Lancashire.

Pets wanted for dog show!

WOODLANDS Animal Sanctuary in Holmeswood is inviting dog owners to show their love for their four-legged friend this February by entering them in their dog show!

The event will take place at the Thompson House Farm in Standish on Saturday, February 5 from 12-4pm.

A spokesperson for the sanctuary said: "At just £3 per class, payable on the day, and with reductions the more classes you enter, it won't be an expensive afternoon for you, but you can be sure your contributions will make a massive difference to the animals who are in Woodlands care at the moment."

A Tale of Two Swans

Over winter, WWT Martin Mere Wetland Centre welcomes up to a thousand Whooper swans, that travel here from Iceland to spend the winter in a warmer climate. Swans are creatures of habit and we know from studying the swans over the last 30 years that the same individuals come back year after year.

Research is conducted at Martin Mere each year and this includes fitting the swans with a darvic ring; a large colourful ring with 3 digits on it that sits around their ankle. This ensures we can identify and even name our swans, as well as creating family trees. Two of the most well known swans are Sigrunn (X4H) and Virginia (VJA).

Sigrunn, in 2009, was fitted with a satellite transmitter to monitor his migration route. Sigrunn did 550 miles in less than 24 hours - this is quite amazing when you think about how big the swans are and how much they weigh! By doing research with transmitters we have been able to determine that the fastest flight from UK to Iceland has been 8 hours and they fly at around 40 to 50 mph.

Virginia is Martin Mere's oldest know swan; she was at least 28 years old. Virginia has made this migration at least 56 times – flying an astonishing 44,800 miles in her lifetime and rearing at least 26 cygnets.

You can find out all about the tales of these two swans at Martin Mere in our exhibition hall this winter. Travel through a swan pipe and pretend to be a swan as you take all your own measurements and make your own darvic ring. There is also an informative video to watch showing the Whooper swans and how we continue this research in the rugged landscape of Iceland.

Seeing the swans in person is a must and you can watch them everyday at the Whooper swan and wild bird feeds at 3pm and 3.30pm. Maybe you will be able to read a darvic ring to find out the history of that particular swan!

Martin Mere is open every day from 9.30am to 4.30pm (last entry 3.30pm), you don't need to book in advance to visit the centre.

Woman wants to find out more about her footballer ancestor

Do you know what happened to former Northampton Town player Jack Bennett?

Report by Henry James

A WOMAN from Ormskirk is appealing for help to find more information about a family ancestor who used to be professional footballer.

Tracey Hillon has been researching her husband's family tree since 2007 and wants to know more about her husband Bernard's great uncle - John William Bennett.

Known as Jack Bennett he was born in Bootle in 1878, the second eldest child to Robert and Grace. Their eldest child was Isabella, the grandmother of her husband.

She has found out he was a professional footballer from the 1901 census which gives his address shown as 66 Oliver Street, age 22.

Tracey said: "This was quite remarkable in a street where everyone else was a docker or a labourer!"

Tracey then found out from one of her husband's cousins that Jack was a full back for Northampton Town.

Tracey wrote to the club and they sent her photographs of him and his full playing history.

She said: "I think he may have been a bit of a handful from what they wrote!"

He also played for Lincoln City, Luton Town, Leicester City and Blackburn Rovers.

Tracey added: "I have never found out what happened to him after he served in the army and wonder if any of his relatives might still live in the area."

She knows that he married Edith Emily Rynehart on February 6, 1898 and they had five children including Edith Emily Bennett who was born in Northampton in 1902. Mary and Thomas died young. John Robert Bennett died in Halifax in 1938, but is buried in West Derby Cemetery.

She has not been able to find anything out about Edith or James.

Tracey added: "Jack signed up with the 17th Service Battalion RLR on May 25, 1915 but was discharged on September 22, 1916 as no longer fit for war service. His records show he was 125 days in Whiston Hospital with bronchitis. Looks like he knocked three years off his age to get in!"

"I would just love to know what happened to him. If any of the Bennetts or Ryneharts still live in the area and can help me with this quest?"

Anyone with information should email Tracey at traceyhillon@gmail.com

PC who had secret sexual relationship with alleged rape victim faces jail

By our Court Reporter

A POLICE constable from Parbold has been warned to expect a jail sentence after being convicted of misconduct in public office and attempting to pervert the course of justice.

Liverpool Crown Court heard how Simon Rose of Burnside, took advantage of a woman he knew to be vulnerable and a jury took just two hours to unanimously find him guilty of the two offences following a nine day trial.

They had heard how the Greater Manchester Police officer had a secret sexual relationship with an alleged rape victim after calling round to investigate her claims.

He kept their close relationship quiet and when, by coincidence, a search warrant was later issued for her home, he tried to dissuade his colleagues from searching for evidence.

Judge David Swinnerton told 48-year-old Rose, who seemed shocked at the verdicts: "This will be met with a prison sentence because we have to have trust in our police officers and where they breach that trust prison will follow."

Rose was released on bail to await sentence on April 4 and meanwhile a psychiatric report is to be prepared.

Speaking after the hearing, regional director of Independent Office for Police Conduct Amanda Rowe said Rose "took advantage of a woman he knew to be vulnerable and his actions have absolutely no place in policing."

She added: "His subsequent efforts to cover up his behaviour show he knew what he had done was unacceptable" and that Rose would now face "disciplinary proceedings, which will be arranged by the force."

GMP Deputy Chief Constable Terry Woods said: "It is imperative that police officers are held accountable for their actions.

"We treat allegations of misconduct with the utmost seriousness and, whilst this investigation has been led by the IOPC, we have supported investigators fully."

"I am deeply disappointed by this officer's conduct and, now the trial has concluded, misconduct proceedings will commence."

Training provider offers free climate change courses to local firms

Report by Henry James

A LANCASHIRE training provider is helping businesses in Ormskirk and Skelmersdale to become more carbon friendly by offering a range of fully funded courses to help employees learn about climate change.

PHX Training, which has offices across the county, is delivering 1,500 qualifications with Lancashire Local Enterprise Partnership to help businesses skill up their staff with a range of short courses.

The climate change course is an accredited Level 2 qualification and teaches employees about sustainability, including the science behind global warming, its effects on local businesses and ways to limit a company's carbon footprint.

Darren Pond, business manager for Work Based Learning at PHX Training, said: "For many businesses, committing to reduce carbon emissions is a new challenge which can offer some uncertainty.

"Reducing carbon emissions requires all staff to understand how they can play their part, from taking carbon friendly approaches to commuting and transport, in addition to thinking about how emissions can be removed from a supply chain. Showing commitment to reduce carbon emissions from companies can also help give them the edge when bidding for funding or contracts.

"Our courses are fully funded and can allow staff to build a greater understanding of how to meet the low carbon agenda, while also allowing them to harness the potential business, financial and sales benefits which are possible."

The programme, which is funded by the Department for Work and Pensions alongside the European Social Fund, is aimed to help businesses become more productive and plug skills gaps across the county.

It's time to speak up for the animals

As a nation of animal lovers we are calling on your readers to speak up for animals to make sure that animal sentience becomes enshrined in UK law.

Animal sentience was the only issue which was not carried over after Brexit and so the RSPCA has been campaigning to ensure the needs of sentient animals are taken into account by Governments when making policy decisions.

We are now at a critical stage in the Animal Welfare (Sentience) Bill finally becoming law as it got its second reading in the House of Commons last week.

The RSPCA is urging your readers to support the Bill by tweeting their local MP to encourage them to attend the debate in the Commons as well as lobbying their MP by email to ensure they continue to support this Bill as it makes its way through Parliament.

We know that many animals are sentient with the ability to feel pain and suffering, and emotions such as pleasure, joy and fear and so in order to protect these animals, their sentience must be considered in law.

A wide and growing body of research reveals that many animals, from our much-loved pets like dogs and cats, to chickens and lobsters, rats and fish, are all sentient beings.

There is already overwhelming support with 86% of people in favour of a law on animal sentience and so we want to ensure that MPs are listening to their constituents and the groundswell of support for this important Bill.

Now is the time to speak up for animals and lobby your MP to do the same.

The Government promised this law in its manifesto, it is what the public wants, and it must not be a missed opportunity for animals.

For more details and help on how to contact your MP, please visit the RSPCA's webpage.

An easy way to solve blight of stolen shopping trolleys

There is a serious local problem of stolen shopping trolleys which I think could be fixed quite easily.

This is a copy of a letter I have sent to our MP Rosie Cooper.

Please can you use your strong effective local influence and try to ensure that the all the stores within the new Tawd Valley shopping outlet being built in Skelmerdale use modern technology that stops shopping trolleys from being removed from car parks.

This would stop the beautiful new paths and the Tawd River itself becoming even more littered with shopping trolleys.

I counted six trolleys yesterday.

This issue could be stopped in its tracks - literally by making sure trolleys are fitted with an anti-theft system!

This involves installing detection points at car park exits.

If a person attempts to take a trolley past a detection point, the 'intelligent wheel' seizes up.

This prevents the trolley from being pushed any further.

This saves the supermarket the cost of lost trolleys.

It can save them the cost of littering fines too, if trolleys end up being abandoned on public ground.

I enclose information on one of many companies that make such trolleys.

As you have more power than me, please could you write to each manager or their head office to ensure we start well when the new complex opens.

It makes my heart heavy (and very sad) when I walk along such a lovely route, especially now it's part of the park run, to see all these trolleys.

The new paths are well used by all residents now and the increase in trolleys down the banks and in the Tawd could be stopped so easily.

An example of one such company is www.kavanaghenengineering.ie/shopping-trolley-anti-theft-installations.

Elections Bill is a threat to democracy

I find it remarkable that the current Government is driving through new laws that will make our elections less free and less fair.

The Elections Bill will let the Government itself set the priorities for the independent elections watchdog that polices our elections. It's the equivalent of one manager in a football match getting to instruct the referee on what to focus on.

It doesn't stop there.

It introduces a devastatingly expensive and wholly unnecessary requirement for voters to produce photo identity documents at polling stations.

It is estimated that this will lead to at least a million eligible voters being turned away from polling stations.

The Elections Bill threatens our liberty and democracy.

I urge local people to write to their MP to ask them to oppose it.

Why the shortfall in police funding?

I recently took part in a telephone survey on behalf of Merseyside Police.

Most of my answers were positive, however, imagine my confusion and surprise when I was asked whether I would be prepared to spend an extra 13 pence per week on top of my council tax bill to fund the shortfall that will occur in the manpower and services of Merseyside Police in the coming year.

I pointed out that our Prime Minister had stood up in Parliament on a number of occasions and assured our country, that the shortfall in police numbers and services caused by previous Tory administrations had now been corrected.

Do I now have to believe that our Prime Minister, Boris Johnson, actually lies to and misleads our Parliament and nation?

CCTV should be used to catch vandals who ripped up plants

Wandering through Ormskirk around 8.30pm on Sunday with my better half I noticed the planter outside the abandoned Iceland shop had been stripped of its bedding plants and these were strewn around in an act of seemingly mindless vandalism.

Being a keen gardener she took it upon herself to pick them up and reposition them appropriately watched on all the time by a group of half a dozen or so giggling teens smoking what I understand is referred to as 'Grade A Weed.'

Now, and I admit I have no evidence to back this up, I put two and two together and assumed that the two things were related.

I suspect that once some impromptu gardening had occurred and we'd left the scene that these onlookers would have resumed their activities.

I have noticed the number of CCTV cameras in the centre of Ormskirk so this cannot have gone unnoticed.

I trust that this footage will be passed on to the relevant authorities.

ES,
Ormskirk

Rural police teams to target countryside crime

Report by Henry James

LANCASHIRE Police has held a conference with their key stakeholders and partners with the aim of putting the focus on tackling rural crime in 2022.

More than 70% of Lancashire is classed as rural which is why rural crime including wildlife, agriculture and heritage crimes are so important to the constabulary.

The event marked the official launch of the constabulary's new rural task force teams which were introduced last March across Lancashire to allow the police to "proactively target" the issues that matter most to rural communities.

Based from Ormskirk, Morecambe, Garstang, Clitheroe and Waterfoot, a total of 20 officers now form part of the local policing teams that already cover the rural communities to provide extra resources to target, disrupt and address rural crime.

Lancashire Constabulary's Chief Constable Chris Rowley hosted the event held

Some of the officers who took part in the conference focussing on ways to tackle rural crime at Police HQ, supported by Lancashire Partnership Against Crime (LANPAC) and saw a variety of key speakers from their rural partners.

Chief Constable Chris Rowley said: "We are working hard to address what matters most to our rural communities and protect the beautiful countryside we have in Lancashire and keep it safe."

Since the rural taskforce teams were introduced, officers in Lancashire have made 85 arrests, carried out more than 100 stop searches and seized plants, equipment and vehicles worth more than £1m.

The police have issued Criminal Behaviour Orders (CBOs) Community Protection Notices (CPNs) and Criminal Warning Notices (CWNs) and launched a number of cross border operations.

£3.8m fund to help tackle domestic abuse

LANCASHIRE County Council is investing £3.8m to tackle domestic abuse.

A new report sets out a fresh approach to supporting victims, perpetrators, and families at a much earlier stage. The proposal was agreed by the county council's cabinet on Thursday, January 20, and it follows the introduction of the Domestic Abuse Act 2021.

County Councillor Peter Buckley, cabinet member for community and cultural services, said: "This £3.8m investment is a key part of our plans to protect families and communities from the devastating effects of domestic abuse.

"The investment will enable us to do more to prevent or stop abuse earlier with targeted schemes like the Parachute Programme."

Residents invited to 'set the agenda' for future council policies

Report by Henry James

WEST Lancashire residents are being invited by the borough council to contribute towards setting the agenda for future meetings.

The council is inviting locals to submit topic suggestions for consideration for inclusion in the Work Programme of their Corporate and Environmental Overview and Scrutiny Committee for 2022/23.

Through its work, the committee will bring forward appropriate recommendations to Cabinet and Council which can influence future decisions on policy and important decisions the Council may make.

Councillor Donna West, chair of the corporate and environmental overview and scrutiny committee, said: "Scrutiny is an important part of our democratic duties and I am looking forward to hearing residents' thoughts and suggestions for consideration by the Corporate and Environmental Overview and Scrutiny Committee to assist us in setting a Work Programme for scrutiny topics that can help make a real difference to the borough."

Topics can cover any area of the borough council's work, and in some cases the work of partner organisations that might have significance for the local community in West Lancashire.

The reviews carried out by the Committee provide a "valuable insight" into issues facing local communities and can assist the work of the council.

Reviews in previous years have covered a wide range of topics including climate change and litter bins.

If people have a suggestion they think might be suitable then let the council know.

Email ideas to member.services@west-lancs.gov.uk or call 01695 585168. The deadline for topic suggestions for the work programme is Sunday, January 30.

Topics received will go through a scoring process, prior to being considered for by Corporate and Environmental Overview and Scrutiny Committee, at the meeting on March 10.

Residents who would like to speak on an agenda item, (as with all public meetings of the council), must submit their request by 10am the Friday before the meeting. Agendas are published on www.westlancs.gov.uk/coins a week before the committee.

Late Mitchley strike sends Skem top of the table

Skelmersdale United 3
Congleton Town 2

SKELMERSDALE United went top of the league after a dramatic end to the game saw striker Danny Mitchley score a late winner against Congleton Town, writes Kevin Pantner.

The result saw Skem leapfrog Macclesfield at the top of the North West Counties Premier Division after the title rivals only managed a draw at Charnock Richard.

It could have been so different for the Blues who were 2-0 up thanks to a first half strike from Mitchley and a 64th minute thunderbolt from 25 yards struck by United's man of the match Joe Nicholson and all was going sailing for Skem.

But Congleton are a team full of experience and an innocuous free kick conceded on the edge of the United box just a minutes later ended with Kyle Diskin firing a low shot past the wall and out of keeper Ben Barnes reach to bring it back to 2-1.

It shouldn't have worried Skem too much as they were by far the team in the ascendancy with Howard and Elliott causing all sorts of problems to the visitor's defence throughout the afternoon.

However, the goal spurred on the visitors and they piled on the pressure looking for the equaliser and it came with a scrappy effort converted by substitute Aaron Bott. Skem were now hanging on and could have gone behind as Tom Pope's effort sailed just over the bar.

But Paul McNally urged on his troops and a flowing move in the 85th minute ended with an Elliott Morris cross finding the feet of Danny Mitchley at the far post who fired home from close range to send the ground into pandemonium.

Mitchley on the ball for Skem. Picture by Elliott Southwell

A delighted Paul McNally said after the game: "We should have been out of sight at the interval and when Joe (Nicholson) popped up with the second, I was already thinking ahead to next week but Congleton came back and made us work very hard, we got the rub of the green at the end and yes I was delighted"

...next up is trip to title rivals Macclesfield!

Skelmersdale United have arguably their biggest league game for eight years this Saturday, (January 29) when they travel to Macclesfield for what could be described as a league title crunch encounter.

The match is looking certain to be a 4,000 plus sell out and could be a huge match in deciding the fate of the league title.

Skelmersdale are top of the North West Counties

Premier Division and Macclesfield are second, both having identical playing records. Only goal difference separates the two sides.

Although there will still be another 11 league games to play after Saturday and the destination of the title will be far from over, the winner will have a huge psychological advantage over the other.

Many would say that Skelmersdale already have that psychological lead because in early December Skem were eight points adrift of the Silkmen in that Paul McNally's side have only lost one league game since September, whereas Macclesfield have only won three of their last six matches, dropping eight points out of their last 18 in the process, all meaning that Skem are definitely in the better form.

Struggling Linnets lose fourth match in a row

Burscough 1

BURSCOUGH fell to a fourth consecutive loss after conceding a later winner at Irlam, writes Neil Leatherbarrow.

Irlam took the lead after 11 minutes when John Main lifted the ball into the Linnets net after being put through by Ethan Cartwright.

Soon afterwards Burscough's George Lomax was in on goal but was thwarted by a last ditch challenge.

Burscough equalised on 33 minutes thanks to a precise header from Chris Lomax.

In the second-half, Burscough defended well with Mitchell Kinsella doing particularly well on 63 minutes clearing from a dangerous looking free-kick.

In the 83rd minute Irlam scored the winner when Millen Brown netted with an acrobatic right foot volley at the far post.

Next match: AVRO vs Burscough. Saturday, January 29. Kick off 3pm.

Popular health club manager 'honoured' to scoop national award

Report by Henry James

THE manager of Stocks Hall Health Club & Spa in Mawdesley said he was "honoured" after winning a Manager of the Year 2021 award.

Mark Donnelly was nominated for the 3D leisure event, initially making the shortlist of four people from 128 businesses, and was then invited to an award ceremony where he found out he had won.

Mark said: "My staff were asked about me in a secret survey and, apparently, I got a perfect score! "Members of Stocks Hall Health Club & Spa were also contacted secretly, and there were secret shoppers involved who helped in making the final decision.

"I also discovered that some of the members, after hearing about my nomination, emailed the organisers to put my case forward."

When asked how it felt having won, Mark responded: "It is an absolute honour to win. When asked by other managers on the evening about what my advice would be to help them win it next year, I said, "Treat the place as if it's your own, treat the staff with the upmost respect, and treat every member as a VIP, as that's what they are, after all."

Mark Donnelly, manager of Stocks Hall Health Club & Spa (right), with Richard Coates, regional manager of 3D Leisure Director, Sue Lace, was so proud of Mark and commented: "Mark is a very kind, helpful, popular manager of the group; he has faced some difficult challenges, especially over the pandemic times.

"He is very well respected and goes out of his way to treat his staff and visiting members and guests with integrity and value. We congratulate him on his wonderful achievement."

Charity's tree recycling service raises £5,500

RAINBOW Hub, 'Recycle your Christmas Tree' service raised £5,500 for the Mawdesley-based charity.

A team of volunteer collectors and vans saved families time and hassle by collecting 525 trees from the surrounding area.

In addition to collections, other supporters provided skips, chipping equipment and refreshments for the volunteers of all ages who gathered to help.

Emma Parish, corporate relations and event manager, Rainbow Hub, said: "Raising £5,500 is a fantastic start to 2022!"

PRAYERS

The Miraculous Prayer

Dear heart of Jesus. In the past I have asked for many favours. This time I ask you this very special one. Take a dear heart of Jesus and place it within your broken heart where your Father sees it. Then, in his merciful eyes it will become your favour not mine. Amen.

Say this prayer for 3 days. Promise publication and favour will be granted.

I'm on about the screechy, rev-happy variety of donuts!

IF YOU'RE reading this column then chances are that you'll know what a donut is – and I don't mean the sort that widens your waistline if you over-indulge.

Nope, I'm on about the screechy, rev-happy variety, because it's under the spotlight in West Lancashire Borough Council's consultation on car meets in Pimbo. For those of you not up to speed – as it seems, the people taking part in the meets most definitely are – there's a campaign at the moment to crack down on cars from right across the North West converging on the area. They are, in the words of West Lancashire Chief Inspector, Chris Abbot, behind "significant anti-social behaviour and nuisance caused by the manner of driving, races, burn outs and associated noise".

■ Santa Pod in Northamptonshire is one of the few UK venues where car fans can drag race legally Basically, these drivers are seen as a pain in the arse and the council, police, and a lot of rightly peeved residents want rid of them. It's also entirely right that my colleagues at the sharp end of The Champion are reporting on the various twists and turns of the consultation, which runs until 19 February. But I'm also a car enthusiast, and so are the people behind the Pimbo meets.

So not only did I read the consultation, but I went and watched some clips from the Pimbo meets and found the Facebook pages their protagonists use.

I'm not, for a second, about to defend the legality of what's going on here, as there's no

with

way, under even the haziest understanding of the Highway Code, that drag racing a chipped Focus ST against a modded Audi or BMW has any place on a public road. But my worry is – as with anything railed against as reckless, anti-social yobbery – is that as soon as it's clamped down in Pimbo, it'll pop up somewhere else. So why not give these cars somewhere to go?

This isn't the council's responsibility or that of Lancashire Constabulary, but I reckon there ought to be somewhere, here in the North West, that actually allows people to converge with cars legally and burn a bit of rubber. Fancy drag racing your own car? Santa Pod is an awfully long way from Skem, as is Elvington Airfield. Surely some petrolhead-minded entrepreneur, working with the powers-that-be, can turn their hand to creating a safe space where car nuts can enjoy their hobby without winding everyone else up?

With soaring petrol prices, emission zones in big cities and plans to ban the sale of new internal combustion vehicles within a decade, there's never been a more pressing time to defend being a petrolhead as a legitimate hobby – and illegal meets are prime ammo for the anti-car lobby.

Something, somewhere, needs to change. People who enjoy donuts of the Krispy Kreme variety shouldn't need to worry about those who prefer the Pirelli-shredding sort.

David Simister,
 editor of Classic Car Weekly

VOLKSWAGEN'S new Multivan is available to order now, with the first examples arriving across the north west in March. Prices for the new people-mover, which replaces the Caravelle, start at £43,160. Initially there'll be a choice of three engines, including a plug-in hybrid model, and three trim levels to choose from. To find out more go to www.volkswagen.co.uk or pop into your nearest VW dealer.

■ The new VW Multivan shares much of its tech with the Golf and Passat

JEEP is offering two of its mud-pluggers in hybrid form. Both the Renegade and Compass can now be ordered with a turbocharged 1.5-litre petrol engine that's teamed up with a 15kW electric motor, which the manufacturer claims cut the fuel consumption and carbon emissions by as much as 15 per cent. Both are available to order now, with prices starting at £31,130 for the Renegade and £32,895 for the Compass.

■ Jeep is selling both the Renegade and Compass in hybrid form

FREE MOT TEST FOR LIFE

There is no other car dealer in the UK that will allow you to swap your existing car for another one and give you a FREE MOT TEST for life!

Well, Chapelhouse are doing exactly that with every NEW or USED CAR purchased throughout their CAR SWAP EVENT.

Chapelhouse will carry out a FREE MOT test each year for the life of the car and even if you sell the vehicle we can transfer this over to the new owner. BARGAIN!

This great opportunity can save you up to £1000 over the life time of the vehicle you purchased from us.

"I swapped my old C1 for a new Suzuki Swift with loads of extras and it only cost me £500 and with FREE MOT for life." Paula Taylor

Get down to Chapelhouse and take advantage of not only a newer vehicle but a vehicle with FREE MOT tests for life, it's that simple!!

"We swapped our Vauxhall Corsa for a much newer Kia Rio and it's hard to believe it only cost us £645." The Parsonage Family

HOW IT WORKS...

1. We shall close early on the 20th January in order to prepare for The Chapelhouse Car Swap ten day event.
2. We will fully prepare over 1000 new, nearly new and used vehicles and line them up for you to browse around.
3. The price of every car will be reduced and PRICED TO SELL!
4. The Car Swap price will be whitewashed on to every car windscreen.
5. You will be able to see the saving from the original price which will still be on the car.
6. When you arrive and after making your choice of tea, coffee or hot chocolate your car will be valued.
7. You will be given a written valuation on a signed form stating how much we will give you for your car.
8. Pick the car you most desire and either do a straight swap depending on the valuation of your car or pay the difference.
9. Once you have decided on a swap, simply take your valuation form to any one of the Chapelhouse Car Sales Executives who will complete the necessary documentation. You will also be able to take advantage of special finance packages during the event, including interest free credit.

Don't miss this special event at Chapelhouse

Trading in your tired old wheels for a more exciting model becomes easier and cheaper than ever.

Here at Chapelhouse, we love giving our customers great deals, so if you are looking to change your car, we are offering a simple, catch free way to do so, without leaving you out of pocket.

Our Car Swap event runs right across the Chapelhouse group, meaning you have a range of over 1000 new, nearly new and quality used vehicles to choose from.

Many of our cars also come with a host of added extras as standard, including our fantastic 'FREE MOT TEST FOR LIFE' offer.

The process is simple, just take your car down to Chapelhouse, and enjoy a hot drink on us, while one of our friendly salesmen works out price we can give you for your car.

Once we've worked this out, you can take a look around the site and pick the car you'd like to take home with you.

Each car will be reduced and priced to sell, so simply deduct the price of your car from the price of your new car, and that's all you have to pay. That means there is every chance you will walk away with a new higher spec car for nothing!

No other dealer can boast an offer this good, so make sure you take a trip down to Chapelhouse during this January Car Swap event and get yourself a new car from as little as £0!
